Privacy Policy

We receive, collect and store information you enter on our website or provide us in any other way.

In addition, we may collect the Internet protocol (IP) address used to connect your computer to the Internet. We may use software tools to measure and collect session information, including page response times, length of visits to certain pages, page interaction information, and methods used to browse away from the page.

We may also collect personally identifiable information e.g. name, email address and role, if provided by you, most likely by email, which would be retained only for a relevant length of time in dealing with an enquiry, or in a limited way for subsequent record keeping and accounting from a confirmed project.

If you have any concerns about information you have provided by email, or by any other method, this may be deleted as soon as possible, by your request.
